

912 WEALTHY HISTORY

1893-2011

PHOTOS © COPYRIGHT GRAND RAPIDS PUBLIC LIBRARY

916 WEALTHY STREET

(CONNECTOR)

912 WEALTHY STREET

900 WEALTHY STREET

- 1893: Site of Vonk Family home (demolished 1952)
- 1952: Wealthy Heights Printing Company
- 1963: Hoekstra Printing Company (Construction of connector)

- 1935: Vonk Dairy
- 1945: Indian Trails Candy Manufacturers

- Mid-1920s: Original gas station (demolished 1948)
- 1948: Freeman's Sunoco gas station

- 1982: Screen Beaters Silk Screen Services moves to 912 Wealthy and by 1988 occupies the entire complex, with a connector to the former gas station
- 2005: The three buildings are minimally occupied and increasingly neglected
- 2011: The complex is historically preserved, creating a structure that celebrates the distinctive façades of the original three buildings

(Italic indicates original building construction)